Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, wornout expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind. It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardui, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much. "Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health. I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.

A Useful Reminder. An M. i wuo in his magisterial eapacity periodically visited a private funatic asymm told the story of a man of some position in the legal world who went to see a patient who had occasional tapses into sanity. The patient made a great impression on his visitor as a well informed, healthy minded gentleman and was assured that his case should be inquired into. On leaving, the grateful patient courteously conducted his morning caller to the front door, affectionately pressing his band at parting.

"You won't forget what I've told rou," be pleaded, with tears in his

"No," responded the visitor, turning round to descend the rather long flight of steps. "I don't think you will," said the patient dreamily, "but lest you should you know"-And, ifting up his foot, he gave the unsuspecting, defenseless visitor a kick behind that sent him spinning down the stairway and sprawling on the gravel.-Pearson's Weekly.

A Bird's White Feathers. The occurrence of white teathers in a bird's plumage is very common. It is, of course, due to tack of coloring matter and is flable to appear in both young and old birds. I have known of several old birds to exhibit this pecultarity (mostly in the wing feathers. however), and it may be due to imperin the Garden Sub- fect nutrition and circulation as the young birds in a number of instances The phenomenon thus cannot be said to occur simply as a result of old age but is rather one of those slight changes in the bird's system the causes of which we do not know. > Patrick Henry's Fee. It is said of Patrick Henry that during his practice of law in the Virginia courts and when he was familiarly ad dressed as "governor" a man who had been arrested for stealing a nog and who was out on ball went to the governor to have bim detend him.

> The governor said, "Did you walk away with that shoat?"

"I don't like to say." "Out with it."

"Yes, sir." "Have you got the carcass?"

"Yes, sir." "You go home, you wretch, cut the plg lengthwise in balf and hang as much of it in my smokehouse as you keep to yours."

At court the governor said, "Your honor, this man has no more of that stolen shoat than I have." The man was cleared.-National Monthly.

A Lincoln Story.
When Lincoln, a struggling lawyer. was doing circuit duty in Ohio he once visited a country town where the general storekeeper had the reputation of adulterating, even to the danger point, his cider. In the midst of a general condemnation of this storekeeper Lincoln rose one night from his seat by the hotel stove.

"Come on. boys," he said. And he led a party of a half dozen lawyers and judges to the general

The Inventor of the Match.

The first match was the product of the ingenuity of John Frederick Komerer, who early in the nineteenth cen tury was imprisoned in the penitentlary at Hoheusperg, in Germany. He invented the jucifer match while in his gloomy dungeon. The German government forbade the manufacture of matches on the ground of public policy because some children playing with them and caused a fire. Komerer was ruined by Viennese competition when be was released from prison and dled a pauper. Op to 1862 the Vlenna napufacturers controlled the match business of the entire world.
